To help you, here are eight of the best online car repair guides. Note If you're having serious issues with your vehicle, it's best to visit a mechanic before attempting to fix anything yourself. It has stepbystep repair instructions, troubleshooting guides, recall information, animated diagrams, and video examples. This website is indepth and offers guides on nearly anything that's wrong with your vehicle, and it isn't free. It does, however, present several purchasing options. Despite being free, it offers comprehensive guides that are easy to follow. If you're having an issue with your vehicle, this website can tell you what could be wrong with your car as well as what tools you'll need to fix it. Plus, it'll give you the part number should you need a replacement. Now it offers information on how to fix some makes and models from as early as the 1960s up to 2011. The guides tell you what tools and parts you need before you start the project, then they give stepbystep instructions that include clear pictures. It's no surprise it offers some free vehicle repair guides right on its website. It offers "problem solving" guides if you need a little help figuring out what's wrong with your car. Based on how your car feels, looks, smells, or sounds, you can troubleshoot the various issues and find solutions right on the website. It offers manuals for most domestic and imported vehicles sold in the U.S. from 1982 to 2012, except for BMW and Mini Cooper. It's the most comprehensive website on this list, and information is easy to find. ALLDATA also requires pay memberships. PepBoys even lists HaynesOnline as the place to go for car repairs. Instead of individual repair guides, you get an online manual repair book. These repair books offer extensive information on such topics as routine maintenance, tuneup procedures, engine repair, and more. Haynes isn't a free website, but it has three membership options. It is designed with the doityourselfer in mind.

This site offers numerous mechanical repairs, though it avoids larger projects. This website allows you to search for various topics on basic car repairs. The only downfall of this website is that it isn't narrowed down by vehicle make and model. Each guide gives you a general idea of how to repair or replace something in your car. Like some other guides, it tells you the parts and tools you'll need, but it also explains the difficulty of the repair and gives any tips on your project it may have to offer. It's free, so it's worth a try for simple fixes. Even if it is just for the torque settings on different fasteners. Ive replaced knock sensors and upper and lower control arms with the help of this book. Perfect deal! Trucks are always breaking, having this has already saved me a ton of time and frustration. Unfortunately this one is very broad, spreading for more than 20 years, at least 3 different models and several different engines. A lot of time is spent making sure you are dealing with the right engine or specs. That said, Haynes manuals havent changed that much over the years, while cars have gotten far more complex. A great deal of car maintenance now involves dealing with computers and diagnostic scan tools. Haynes manuals cover none of that. So while it helps with basic things like brakes, suspension and so on, dont expect this manual to help you do anything complex. Every one of these that I have are about the same. Everything Id hoped itd be. Ive used these manuals in the past for other vehicles, and while you can probably look up most repairs online, having this manual handy while looking into the engine compartment or laying under the car is invaluable. Thanks! The pictures are good for the beginner. I do recommend having both a Chilton and a Haynes manual because they offer different bits of information that can be very helpful. I got both of mine used on Amazon for really cheap. It is a must for anyone who does their own basic repairs.

It doesnt cover everything but is still well worth the money. Expect a completely new Chilton experience. A brand new information rich, communitydriven Web site that keeps pace with the needs of today's driver wherever your car and mobile devices may take you. And we want you to come along on the ride. If you have ideas on how we can build you a better product, please share your thoughts with us in an email. And in the meantime, please drive safely. See, for a long time I was pushing online repair manuals from Alldata and Mitchell1. I made some money, and in all fairness, they have a great product. The online manuals gave excellent repair information, had the exploded views and wiring diagrams that I needed to fix my car plus kept me up to date on recalls and TSB information. Alldata was bought by AutoZone and they made the decision to release most of their DIY Repair information to the public on their website AutoZone.com. The reality is that many car brands were pulling their repair information off of AutoZone and coverage was getting thin. I believe AutoZone made the decision that this was no longer helping bring in parts sales and removed the repair information from their website. You can still get their excellent repair information on Alldata or checkout Mitchell1 which I recommend highly as well. Please note, these other methods are illegal and not a recommended way to procure an auto repair manual. Someone took the time to document the procedures and grabbing their work for free is stealing plain and simple. As they say, nothing in life is free, and you usually get what you pay for. Your eCTM will be stored in that account. If a Member has multiple Program Credit Cards they cannot be linked to the same Triangle Rewards Account.

A Member can request the issuance of additional Triangle Rewards Cards that have the same account number as that Member's Triangle Rewards Account. Collecting electronic Canadian Tire Money eCTM can be collected when you purchase Eligible Merchandise see below at participating Canadian Tire stores or online at canadiantire.ca or such other web site as may be designated by Canadian Tire from time to time. To collect eCTM you must present a Triangle Rewards Card or use a Cardless Method described below. You can also collect eCTM on that portion of a purchase charged to a Program Credit Card. The Program Credit Card must be linked to a Triangle Rewards Account at the time the purchase is made in order to collect eCTM. The amount of eCTM collected on fuel purchases depends on the number of litres purchased. A minimum fuel purchase may be required before eCTM can be collected. The rate of collection may vary from time to time and by location and by type of tender used for payment so check at your local Canadian Tire gas bar. You can also collect eCTM on purchases that you make at other merchants that are charged to a Program Credit Card. The rate at which eCTM can be collected may vary from time to time and by location and is subject to change by Canadian Tire without notice. In addition, you may collect eCTM at a different rate if you pay with a Program Credit Card than you would if you use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method. Purchases made in a foreign currency with a Program Credit Card are first converted into Canadian currency as set out in the cardmember agreement prior to calculating the amount of eCTM that you have collected. If you use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method, it must be swiped or scanned or your phone number provided, as the case may be, before you make your purchase. When shopping online at canadiantire.ca or other website as designated by Canadian Tire, you must enter your Triangle Rewards Account number at check out to collect eCTM.

Members are also eligible to collect bonus eCTM, or to collect eCTM at a promotional rate offered from time to time on the purchase of select items, upon the occurrence of certain events or as part of a promotion or offer, but unless otherwise indicated, bonus eCTM or eCTM awarded at a promotional rate is awarded only once for a transaction. You cannot use a Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method together with a Program Credit Card. If you charge a purchase to a Program Credit Card, you will only earn eCTM at the applicable Program Credit Card rate then in effect, even if you also present your Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method. However, if you redeem eCTM to pay for part of a transaction and pay for the balance of the transaction with a Program Credit Card that is linked to a different Triangle Rewards Account than the account from which the redemption is occurring, all eCTM collected in respect of that transaction will be credited to the Triangle Rewards Account from which redemption is occurring. You will not be able to collect eCTM on that portion of a transaction in respect of which you redeemed eCTM. However, we may, from time to time and at our discretion, have special offers or promotions that would allow you to collect eCTM on that portion of a transaction in respect of which you redeemed eCTM. If you use more than one Program Credit Card to make a purchase e.g. split the cost between two or more cards, all eCTM collected on that purchase will be credited only to the Triangle Rewards Account linked to the first Program Credit Card that is presented. If you make payment using a Program Credit Card in combination with some other form of tender, only that portion of the purchase charged to the Program Credit Card will earn eCTM at the then applicable Program Credit Card rate. That portion of the purchases made with the other form of tender may be eligible to earn eCTM at a different rate.

Delays may occur in recording eCTM to a Triangle Rewards Account. Redeeming electronic Canadian Tire Money eCTM can only be redeemed for merchandise including applicable taxes at participating Canadian Tire stores or at other locations designated by Canadian Tire. To redeem your eCTM you must present your Triangle Rewards Card or Cardless Method or Program Credit Card to the cashier with your purchase. Please note that in some Canadian Tire stores it may not be possible to simply provide your phone number when redeeming eCTM; presentation of your Triangle Rewards Card or Program Credit Card or scanning of the Program App may be required instead. You may not redeem eCTM from more than one Triangle Rewards Account for the same transaction. You must have enrolled in the Program, or have activated your Program Credit Card, in order to redeem eCTM.

What Happens When an Item is Returned. If you return an item for a refund and had received eCTM when you purchased such item, such amount of eCTM will be deducted from your Triangle Rewards Account. Merchandise that was purchased either in whole or in part by redeeming eCTM may not be returned for cash, rather, the connected Triangle Rewards Account will be credited with the same amount of eCTM used to make the original purchase.

Expiration of Electronic Canadian Tire Money We may expire the eCTM in your Triangle Rewards Account in the event that there has been a period of inactivity of 18 months or more. For the purposes of this section, "inactivity" means that there has been neither a transaction in which you have collected eCTM, nor a transaction in which you have redeemed eCTM during the period in question.

Termination of Membership and Cancellation of the Program Membership may be terminated by Canadian Tire if any of the following events occur: A the Member has failed to comply with any of these terms and conditions, or Canadian Tire determines that the Member has abused the Program or has made any misrepresentation or false statement to Canadian Tire; B the Member dies; C the Member becomes bankrupt or insolvent or any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the Member; D the Member is charged with a "designated offence" as defined in the Criminal Code Canada; E the Member's Program Payment Card is terminated by Canadian Tire Bank; or F Canadian Tire suspects the Member of any fraudulent activity in connection with the Program or the use of a Program Payment Card. A Member may choose to cancel his or her membership by written notice sent to the address below or by calling Program customer service. Termination or cancellation of membership in the Program will result in the immediate closing of the Member's Triangle Rewards Account and the cancellation of all eCTM in such Triangle Rewards Account without any compensation or other liability to the Member. Termination of a Member's Triangle Rewards Account will also result in the Member no longer being able to use a Program Payment Card linked to the Program. Canadian Tire may, in its sole discretion and at any time without prior notice either i cancel the Program or ii except if you are a Member residing in Quebec, Ontario or such other province where prohibited by law, establish a date upon which eCTM will expire and may no longer be used.

Merging Triangle Rewards Accounts At Canadian Tire's discretion, Members may be able to merge their Triangle Rewards Accounts into a single account.

That merged account will bear the Triangle Rewards Account number of one of the accounts being merged and one Member will be designated as the holder of that account with full power and authority to deal with the account, including closing it, and will become the "Member" hereunder. All Members wishing to merge their Triangle Rewards Accounts will need to consent to the merger and agree on which account number will be designated as the number for the newly merged Triangle Rewards Account and who the account holder will be. All remaining Triangle Rewards Account numbers will be cancelled and the persons who are not designated as the account holder will no longer be Members in the Program.

Donating electronic Canadian Tire Money Members may be able to donate their eCTM to select charities or community groups. Please visit the Program Website for details about donating eCTM. Lost or Stolen Triangle Rewards Cards If a Triangle Rewards Card is lost, stolen or destroyed, Canadian Tire will issue a new card on presentation of proper identification, and the balance in the Member's Triangle Rewards Account will be transferred to a new Triangle Rewards Account. Canadian Tire assumes no responsibility if eCTM has been used by anyone who presents a lost or stolen Triangle Rewards Card, Cardless Method or Program Payment Card before Canadian Tire is notified of such loss or theft. Partner Locations We may, from time to time, designate certain other merchants as locations at which you can collect or redeem eCTM a Partner. If you redeem eCTM at a Partner we are not responsible for any loss, damage, injury, death or expense as a result of any item or service you acquired at such Partner. General eCTM is not exchangeable and cannot be redeemed for cash or made subject to any security interest. These terms and conditions, as amended by Canadian Tire from time to time, constitute the entire agreement between the Member and Canadian Tire with respect to eCTM.

On occasion, Canadian Tire, our various businesses within the Canadian Tire family of companies and any Partners may communicate special offers, information and services to Members by email, text message standard text messaging and data rates may apply or other communication preferences selected by you using the contact information you have provided. Any Member who does not wish to receive these offers may so indicate on the Program Website or by calling Program customer service at 18002268473. Please note that even if you have opted out of receiving marketing communications, we may still contact you for the purposes of administering your account and sending you transactional or operational messages. Any waiver by Canadian Tire of any of these terms and conditions at any time does not mean that Canadian Tire cannot rely on these terms and conditions at any subsequent time. No delay or omission by Canadian Tire in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as waiver thereof or of any other right or remedy. All Triangle Rewards Cards remain the sole property of Canadian Tire and, if requested by Canadian Tire, must be returned to Canadian Tire upon the cancellation of a Member's membership in the Program. The Member is responsible for informing Canadian Tire of any change to his or her personal information e.g. name, address, email, etc., by visiting the Program Website or by calling Program customer service. Canadian Tire reserves the right to terminate a Member's participation in the Program or to block a Member's ability to use the Member's eCTM if Canadian Tire has inaccurate or incomplete information respecting the Member. Enrolment in the Program constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions and each applicant for membership in the Program consents to the collection and use of personal information in accordance with the Canadian Tire Privacy Charter, as amended from time to time.

If any provision of these terms and conditions is invalid or unenforceable, such provision will not affect the validity and enforceability of any of the remaining terms and conditions. Participants are responsible for any taxes, duties or other charges associated with their participation in the Program. Any written notice to Canadian Tire may be sent by ordinary mail to Triangle Rewards Program PO BOX 2000, Station Main Welland, ON L3B 5S3 We may cancel any eCTM that has not been properly issued or that we believe has been issued due to fraudulent conduct or conduct that is inconsistent with these terms and conditions or the spirit of the Program. The version of the terms and conditions that is posted from time to time on the Program Website will govern the Program. These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable in Ontario. You will be provided with written notice of any amendment to these terms and conditions setting out the new clause only or the amended clause and how it read formerly and the date that the amendment will take effect at least 60 days, but not more than 90 days, before it is to take effect. Upon receipt of the notice, you may choose to reject the amendment and rescind these terms and conditions.
